BIM and the small practice / NBS

Contrary to received wisdom that BIM is best suited to large practices working on major projects, David Miller has become something of a BIM evangelist for small practices, arguing that smaller businesses have a real opportunity at the moment to subvert the big boys who have to struggle with change management.

There is a real need for BIM training and professional development and this need will only increase as BIM becomes a reality for more practices and as we move deeper towards Level 2 and 3 BIM. Some small practices may feel excluded from the BIM journey and the report explores this theme in some detail. But among those small practices which
